

St. Johnsbury, Vermont is filled with unique history, culture, and attractions worth discovering whether you're in town for the day, or call St. J your home. Explore our downtown district with clues leading you to various points of interest. Perks await those who participate!

Please remember to respect our local businesses while you are on your hunt and HAVE FUN! All clues are within walking distance in our downtown district. If you need hints, just ask a local, visit the St. Johnsbury Welcome Center Information Booth, or check out the About section of our website.

Short on data? Use our password-free WiFi network "St. J Public WiFi" to access the webpage, www.DiscoverStJohnsbury.com/ScavengerHunt (QR code left), and to send us your email entries.

Instructions:

1. DECIPHER: Decipher the list of clues leading you to various locations throughout downtown St. Johnsbury.
2. TAKE A PIC: When you find a clue location, take a picture of your group.
3. NOTIFY US: Once you find at least 10 clues, email the pictures to scavengerhunt@discoverstjohnsbury.com. * Multiple emails is fine. (If you wish, post them to social media and tag Discover St. Johnsbury - we'll share them in our stories!)
4. EARN YOUR REWARD: Stop by to pick up your free #ilovestj sticker at the St. Johnsbury Welcome Center Information Booth, open Monday through Saturday.

*Photo Release: All photos submitted become the non-exclusive property of the St. Johnsbury Chamber of Commerce, and may be used by the Chamber in current and future marketing campaigns and collateral, across all media and materials.

>> Clues on the reverse >>

Clues:

Clues marked “your choice” are designed to be interpretive. Just show us your favorite example of the clue prompt. Clues marked “multiple options” have more than one correct response.

- This famous black dog knows how to have a ball. Watching over the Welcome Center, she is a friend to all.
- St. J has a reputation for being quite sweet. We’re the world capital of maple, so be sure to find a treat. (Your choice!)
- Until 1965 railroads served passengers well. Go inside the former depot to ring the train bell.
- Downtown is a haven for art of all kinds. Whether bears, cats, or bikes, show us murals you find. (Multiple options!)
- Head under the tracks to a tunnel time-worn. Watch out for traffic, and make sure to sound your horn.
- Join friends for a picnic, or head out for a ride; this Bay Street pavilion is perfect for enjoying time outside.
- Coffee, smoothies, or spirits, or a craft brew, the drink you enjoy is up to you and your crew. (Your choice!)
- This family grew famous for measuring weight. Find their name on a scale, building, or portrait plate. (Multiple options!)
- Find an animal that used to run, fly, or hop; you’ll find taxidermy at many a Railroad or Main Street stop. (Multiple options!)
- This gazebo is home to a band still going strong. Next to the courthouse, summer evenings are filled with song.
- Local authors, cozy book nooks, and written words galore. At these spots in St. J, reading is never a chore. (Multiple options!)
- In markets and shops, artisans display their works. Local handmade treasures are one of Vermont’s perks. (Multiple options!)
- Located on Railroad Street, check out their new space. If you’re looking for events and resources, St. J Community Hub is your place.